Spring Disorders

Shattered nerves, tired brain, impure blood, debilitated system, all are the natural outcome in the Spring. A medicine must be used, and nothing equal Paine's Celery Compound. We let others praise us—you cannot help believing a disinterested party.

Dr. J. H. Greenleaf, Burlington, Vt., writes: "I have used Paine's Celery Compound on several occasions, and always with benefit. Last spring, being very much run down and debilitated, I commenced taking it. Two bottles made me feel like a new man. As a general tonic and spring medicine I do not know of its equal."

"I have used two bottles of your Paine's Celery Compound, and it has given entire satisfaction as an appetizer and blood purifier."

T. L. BAKER, Watertown, Dakota.

Paine's Celery Compound

LOSING ONE'S TEMPER.

Take It All in All, the Human Family Is a Mighty Queer Set.

It takes so little to make a man mad, writes "Amber" in the Chicago Tribune. I saw a dog in the crowd last parade day. Somebody stepped on its tail, and although it could not locate the aggressor it snapped on general principles. It yelped at all creation. Although unable to single out anybody in particular it made it up by including the innocent many with the guilty one, as the teacher does when he keeps an entire virtuous class in after school because Tommy Traddles whispered. That is the way with the average man (and woman). We will patiently endure great stress of physical pain, horrible mental anxiety, bankruptcy, desertion, and even the close brush of death's battle-axe, but fly at to pieces over some little cause of offense, and make everybody miserable because of an affront of less import than the accidental treading on a dog's tail in a crowd. A man will howl and caper like a lunatic over a refractory collar-button, who would face death on a battlefield like a hero. A woman will trudge around all day with a brimstone pug dog in her arms, sit through a matinee with a seven-story hat between her and the stage, walk ten miles on a shopping expedition and preserve her amiability, but will whip her child cruelly because it spills her perfume or loses her special of cotton. If the

A man is proud of his muscle and will stand up to be buffeted by a boxer and pummeled into a human pulchre by a scientific antagonist and call it sport, but if his baby boy runs against him and trips him up, or if a stranger jostles him in the street, he is mad enough to set Constantinople on fire!

Now, if we lost our temper only under great provocation it wouldn't be so pitiful. For the Good Book, among other blessed loop-holes of escape, sets the clause, "if it be possible," within the command to "live peaceably with all men." The dear Lord knew when the admonition was given that it would be quite impossible to live always in this world of ours without losing our temper. Indeed, I think Heaven itself would blush for the man or the woman who was incapable of getting downright mad for special causes. When I saw a man riding by my window a few moments ago lashing a poor, old, broken-down horse with a "blacksnake" whip I was mad enough to stone that man all the way from here to Hyde Park. If I hadn't been, there might have been a reasonable doubt in the recording angel's mind as to whether I had a soul worth balancing accounts with! When I overheard a woman at the matinee the other day tell her little two-year-old boy that she would kill him if he didn't stop being afraid of the music, I felt mad enough at that travesty of every thing sacred and sweet in motherhood to see her put in the penitentiary for the rest of her life! And when a father (!) on the train this morning slapped his boy in the face because he cried aloud with ear-ache I think I could have signed the brute's death warrant as readily as I could receipt a bill. Thank God, every one of you, if you have enough of Heaven in your soul to denounce cruelty and impurity and sin wherever encountered. Rage is divinely just when brought to bear against great and harmful wrongs. But rage vented on trifling issues is as out of place as artillery in hunting grasshoppers.

That One who, alone out of all who have lived on earth, kept Himself pure and unsullied by earth's detestments, was not always meek and mild. When He thundered forth His denunciation of hypocrisy; when He drove the money-changers from the temple; when He denounced the whining knaves who did their aims in public and rebuked them in private; when He rebuked the scribes and Pharisees, and when He smote as the bolt smites that leaps from the quivering cloud, and He looks for wrath and indignation from every one of us against all forms of oppression, pretension and tyranny. It is only, I think, when we lose our temper on questions of personal import that we are ignoble. Looking over at our pattern of the sinless One, we see Him smitten, insulted, reviled, betrayed, forsaken and crucified, with never a whisper but of Divine patience and tenderest forgiving love. The soul that shall possess itself in patience under the sense of all injuries and insults which affect only its own peace, attains closest unto the Divine similitude.

But, O, dear! how easy it is to lay down rules for keeping oneself calm and superior to the sting of insult and the slur of denigrating tongues! The first impulse of the old Adam within us all is to "give as good as is sent."

The old man who tried the plan of counting one hundred before he spoke, when his neighbor called him names over the back fence because he didn't keep his chickens at home, and went into the house afterward and his wife on the head with a bootjack, exemplified the merit of all the rules laid down to cultivate self-possession. It is next to impossible to keep back the angry words and keep down the spirit of wrath under provocation. I, for one, am too awfully human to keep still under abuse. It may be Christian to turn the other cheek and hand back a soft word for a bitter one, but the only safety for the unassisted, if he wishes to keep his temper, is to run. It takes something higher than human strength to pocket an affront sweetly or to keep your lips closed when a son of Belial is flinging hot shot at you. Divine grace will help a man through, but we don't all of us possess it. So the next best thing to do, if you wish to preserve your self-respect, is to quit the scene. For next to a man chasing his hat in high wind, a man bandying angry words over a trifle is the most foolish sight in a world of folly. So if you find yourself involved in circumstances where you stay means to quarrel, get! For I tell you no boy ever lost his marbles more irrevocably out of a ragged pocket than you and I will lose our self-respect and our dignity if we remain to take part in a wordy discussion that ends in a brawl.

I don't suppose the dear little maiden who wrote to ask my counsel as to keeping one's temper under provocation will find any material aid in what I have written. No soldier can take advice as to a battle which he must fight for himself, and no human heart can substantially aid another to grapple with and hold that wary and elusive foe, the temper. All we can do for one another in this campaign for which we have been drafted by destiny is to encourage and counsel as we can, and leave the issue to Heaven and our own endurance and grit as faithful soldiers.

Wealth in Wives or Dogs.

In some parts of Africa a man's wealth is judged by the number of his wives. A man with sixty wives is looked upon as a sort of bonanza king. His wives probably go out washing at fifty cents a day, or make shirts at forty cents a dozen. In this country a man's wealth is judged by the number of dogs he owns. The possessor of eight dogs is generally too poor to pay school tax, and his wife takes in washing.

5 O'CLOCK EDITION.

No one, says the San Francisco Chronicle, will seriously object to the placing of Rosecrans on the retired list of the army. He served with great gallantry during the war, and the country can afford to honor him for his services. But the old man will probably feel ashamed of himself more than once when enjoying his well-earned ease, when he recalls his opposition to the bill to place Grant on the retired list. In the course of debate he distinctly stated that he was opposed on principle to permitting men to sever their connection with the army and then be restored to rank. It was not a matter of principle with him at all, but a bit of spitefulness against Grant, which prompted his opposition. It would not be an ungracious thing for Rosecrans to make some retraction for this act of his, but nobody expects that he will do so.

No one wants to check honest immigrants, but the New York Herald is right when it says: "There is but one fact which stares us in the face—we have a million or more men in this country who are idle, the labor market is glutted and the labor problem is a grave, important and very serious matter. Do we want our national resources taxed by the influx of paupers, criminals and the insane, and the country flooded with men who are willing to cut down wages to a starvation figure in order to get work?"

A WRITER in a San Francisco newspaper is to explain to the young ladies at Mills' Seminary, Oakland, the mysteries of journalism next Thursday. It is possible the young ladies could instruct the journalists in the art of writing passionate, soul-stirring poems and love stories, if he would allow them to do so.

WARDEN McCOMB, of the San Quentin prison, admits that several of his appointees were made at the dictation of political party "bosses." We are surprised that such a hero as Major General John McComb is would permit interference in his dominions from such a source.

THE drift of the testimony of the London Times managers now being given before the Parnell Commission, seems to have in view the establishment of the theory that if the letters are not genuine, the Times has been made the innocent victim of a gigantic money-making swindle. Rats!

In accordance with the orders of Secretary of War Whitney, the United States war ship Monongahela has left Mare Island and sailed for Samoa. Although simply intended as a supply ship, she was fitted with two eight-inch guns, one twenty-pound howitzer and plenty of small arms.

A CHICAGO revivalist stated lately that "progressive eucure is progressing to hell." Doesn't the reverend gentleman state the case a little more strongly than the occasion demands? Why couldn't we say progressive eucure is dying out, or "in the soup," or something of that sort?

We understand that a bill has been introduced cutting down the salary of certain county officers, and another bonding the State for $100,000 for water storage purposes. Will some of our representatives please send us a copy.

TO-DAY'S London dispatches to the GAZETTE show the hollowness of the Times case against Parnell and other members of Parliament, the Thunderer's leading witness having confessed that the Parnell letters were forged by himself.

BEYOND bonding the State for $100,000 it would be well to look into the proposition very carefully and see if there is not a "nigger in the fence."

The armed fleet of both Germany and the United States are gathering at Samoa. There is a possibility of serious fun ahead.

THE PARNELL CASE.

The Leading Witness Says Letters are Forgeries.

WITNESS PIGOTT SKIPS OUT.

General Harrison's Party Warmly Received.

ARRIVAL AT WASHINGTON.

Governor Larrabee of Iowa Acquitted of Libel.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.)

The Forged Parnell Letters.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The Parnell Commission resumed its sitting this morning. Russell stated that on Saturday Richard Pigott went to the residence of Henry Labouchere, and, in the presence of George Augustus Sala, signed a confession stating that the letters upon which the Times based its charges against the Irish members of the House of Commons were forgeries.

Sir Charles Russell applied for a warrant for the arrest of Pigott, and Presiding Justice Hannen said the warrant would be ready in an hour. Attorney-General Webster, for the Times, said no other witness was ready, and he would have to consider what course to pursue. He would also decide whether or not he would resume any part of the case. When Pigott was called to again take the stand he did not appear. After the Court had waited for some time, counsel for the Times stated to the Judges that Pigott had left the hotel at which he was stopping at 11 o'clock last night, and that counsel were ignorant of his whereabouts. The statement caused a sensation in the court room. The court took a recess for half an hour, at the expiration of which time if Pigott does not appear his papers at the hotel will probably be seized.

Pigott, in his confession, said that he forged all the letters secured by the Times, which purported to have been written by Egan, Parnell, Davitt and O'Kelly. He also admitted that he had been guilty of perjury in his evidence before the commission. Soames, the solicitor for the Times, emphatically denies doing anything directly or indirectly to assist Pigott to make his escape.

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Alexander Sullivan this morning received the following cablegram from Michael Davitt: "Pigott bolted. General belief here that the Times and Government paid him to leave."

Attorney-General Webster said that yesterday morning Shannon, the Dublin solicitor, who is assisting the Times, received a letter from Pigott, and he would call Shannon to prove it. Sir Charles Russell said he regretted he had not heard of the letter earlier. He desired to put in evidence a letter from Egan to Labouchere. Webster objected to the introduction of the letter. Russell said that, owing to the Attorney-General's objection, he would not read the letter; but, as the letter with other documents bore upon Pigott's disappearance, he claimed in the interest of justice that he should make a statement. Justice Hannen said evidence must be called in support of the statement, and Sir Charles acquiesced. He added that the letter and documents showed the means by which he had fixed upon Pigott as a forger. Pigott confessed to Lewis, Parnell's solicitor, that he was a forger, and Labouchere and Parnell, who were present when this confession was made, would corroborate this statement.

On Saturday Pigott, without invitation, called upon Labouchere and stated that he desired to make a confession. Labouchere declined to listen unless witnesses were present, whereupon Sala was summoned and Pigott made a confession. Russell also said that whatever course was adopted by Attorney-General Webster, he should pursue his own course and should insist that the whole matter be thoroughly investigated, because it was deliberately charged that between Pigott and Houston there had been a foul conspiracy. He asked the Court to impound a document which arrived at Anderson's addressed to Pigott, in care of Houston. Sir Charles added that Pigott had made his escape, assisted by a bodyguard consisting of an Irish constable and two Scotland-yard detectives. Labouchere, Sir Charles said, had received a letter from Egan in July, 1888, in consequence of which a number of documents were handed to Labouchere. Sir Charles asked permission to call a witness to testify to information which the Court ought to have.

Russell further said that Pigott, in the presence of George Augustus Sala, signed a confession that the documents he has produced were forgeries, and that he was the forger. The confession was sent to Lewis, who yesterday returned it to Pigott, saying that Parnell refused to have anything to do with him.

Shannon was then called as a witness. He testified that on Sunday night Pigott gave him a written statement denying the statement made to Labouchere, that he forged all the letters. Pigott said he believed the first batch were genuine. In the second batch two of Parnell's letters were forged by himself and Casey. The third batch, consisting of letters from Davitt and O'Kelly, were also forged by himself and Casey. Pigott added in his statement that, having now stated the truth and confessed it before the world, the Times should deal leniently with him upon cross-examination. Shannon said he had taken no steps to prevent Pigott from bolting. He expected him to appear in Court.

Congressional Proceedings.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—As experience has shown that there is but little chance for business before 11 o'clock, but few members were present when the session opened at 10.

Several messages from the President vetoing pension bills were received. On motion of Joseph of New Mexico a bill passed for the establishment of the Lincoln Land District in New Mexico.

Then filibustering began. Bland of Missouri moved a half-hour recess.

Randall asked unanimous consent for a report from the Appropriations Committee on the Sundry Civil bill with the Senate amendment; but, aggrieved at the nullification of the special order, Biggs of California, whose name stands high on the list of recognition, objected, and the House relapsed into inaction.

At 11 o'clock, Bland having withdrawn his motion, Randall reported the Sundry Civil bill.

The recommendations of the Committee on Appropriations relative to the Senate amendments were agreed to.

No effort was made to call up the contested election case, and the House went into Committee of the Whole on the Deficiency Appropriation bill.

SENATE.

Dolph, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported the Senate bill vetoed by the President for the relief of W. H. Whiston and C. H. Chamberlain of California, with the recommendation that it pass, notwithstanding the objections of the President.

Dolph made an explanation of the facts, claiming that the President's objection was made on the apprehension that the bill is to reimburse the parties—formerly Register and Receiver of the Land Office in California—for clerk hire paid by them. The vote resulted—yeas 45, nays 8. Two-thirds having voted in the affirmative, the bill was passed.

Stewart offered an amendment (agreed to) appropriating $187,500 for the purchase of three pneumatic dynamite guns of 15-inch calibre, ready for use on the Pacific Coast.

Asking for More States.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Representative Springer has introduced a bill for the admission of Idaho and Wyoming. It provides that these Territories may become States as provided by the Omnibus bill, approved on the 22d inst., and that the provisions of that Act shall be extended to these Territories as if they had been included in the Act above mentioned.

Delegate Joseph of New Mexico has introduced a bill providing for the admission of New Mexico. It provides that the present Territory may become a State as under the provisions of the omnibus bill approved on the 22d inst., so far as they are applicable to the Territory of New Mexico.

The Train Robbers.

TULARE, Cal., Feb. 26.—Two officers returned last night from the chase of the train robbers. They are positive they are on the right track. They followed the tracks ninety miles to Templar Canyon, in the coast range, where their horses gave out and they had to return. A new start will be taken this evening. Two men answering the description of the robbers were seen by some Mexicans in the mountains.

A Libel Suit.

DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 26.—The jury in the libel case against Governor Larrabee was still out at 11 o'clock. The jury came in for instructions. The court said the pamphlet on which the libel was based was a privileged one, and to convict, it was necessary to show malice, which had not been done. The jury then returned a verdict of acquittal.

The Walking Match.

Death of Seth Cook.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.—Seth Cook, the well-known mining operator, died at the Palace Hotel this morning. He was a native of New York and 69 years old.

A BALL TOILET.

The fixings cost more than the dress.
A correspondent writes the following concerning woman's love for pretty things:

"When are you happiest?" I asked a pretty young girl I know.
"When I can go to a big ball and be the best-dressed girl there," she replied promptly.

"But how about partners?" I suggested.
"Oh, they don't bother me. I always have enough, but it's the fixings for my ball dress that troubles me. You see, it does not cost very much for the dress, but all the fixings to it are what cost."

"Fixings," I was told meant a pretty pair of slippers, silken stockings, long Sued gloves, a big fan and a ribbon to fasten it, an embroidered handkerchief, lace for the neck and sleeves, and flowers and hairpins. All these trifles cost money, and they must all be of the nicest, or even the effect of the most costly toilet would be spoiled.

The Trinity Sunday-school Guild will have a social at the rectory on Thursday evening, February 28th. All are cordially invited to attend.

Several messages from the President vetoing pension bills were received. On motion of Joseph of New Mexico a bill passed for the establishment of the Lincoln Land District in New Mexico.

Then filibustering began. Bland of Missouri moved a half-hour recess.

Randall asked unanimous consent for a report from the Appropriations Committee on the Sundry Civil bill with the Senate amendment; but, aggrieved at the nullification of the special order, Biggs of California, whose name stands high on the list of recognition, objected, and the House relapsed into inaction.

At 11 o'clock, Bland having withdrawn his motion, Randall reported the Sundry Civil bill.

The recommendations of the Committee on Appropriations relative to the Senate amendments were agreed to.

No effort was made to call up the contested election case, and the House went into Committee of the Whole on the Deficiency Appropriation bill.

SENATE.

Dolph, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported the Senate bill vetoed by the President for the relief of W. H. Whiston and C. H. Chamberlain of California, with the recommendation that it pass, notwithstanding the objections of the President.

Dolph made an explanation of the facts, claiming that the President's objection was made on the apprehension that the bill is to reimburse the parties—formerly Register and Receiver of the Land Office in California—for clerk hire paid by them. The vote resulted—yeas 45, nays 8. Two-thirds having voted in the affirmative, the bill was passed.

Stewart offered an amendment (agreed to) appropriating $187,500 for the purchase of three pneumatic dynamite guns of 15-inch calibre, ready for use on the Pacific Coast.

Asking for More States.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Representative Springer has introduced a bill for the admission of Idaho and Wyoming. It provides that these Territories may become States as provided by the Omnibus bill, approved on the 22d inst., and that the provisions of that Act shall be extended to these Territories as if they had been included in the Act above mentioned.

Delegate Joseph of New Mexico has introduced a bill providing for the admission of New Mexico. It provides that the present Territory may become a State as under the provisions of the omnibus bill approved on the 22d inst., so far as they are applicable to the Territory of New Mexico.

The Train Robbers.

TULARE, Cal., Feb. 26.—Two officers returned last night from the chase of the train robbers. They are positive they are on the right track. They followed the tracks ninety miles to Templar Canyon, in the coast range, where their horses gave out and they had to return. A new start will be taken this evening. Two men answering the description of the robbers were seen by some Mexicans in the mountains.

A Libel Suit.

DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 26.—The jury in the libel case against Governor Larrabee was still out at 11 o'clock. The jury came in for instructions. The court said the pamphlet on which the libel was based was a privileged one, and to convict, it was necessary to show malice, which had not been done. The jury then returned a verdict of acquittal.

The Walking Match.

Death of Seth Cook.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.—Seth Cook, the well-known mining operator, died at the Palace Hotel this morning. He was a native of New York and 69 years old.

A BALL TOILET.

The fixings cost more than the dress.
A correspondent writes the following concerning woman's love for pretty things:

"When are you happiest?" I asked a pretty young girl I know.
"When I can go to a big ball and be the best-dressed girl there," she replied promptly.

"But how about partners?" I suggested.
"Oh, they don't bother me. I always have enough, but it's the fixings for my ball dress that troubles me. You see, it does not cost very much for the dress, but all the fixings to it are what cost."

"Fixings," I was told meant a pretty pair of slippers, silken stockings, long Sued gloves, a big fan and a ribbon to fasten it, an embroidered handkerchief, lace for the neck and sleeves, and flowers and hairpins. All these trifles cost money, and they must all be of the nicest, or even the effect of the most costly toilet would be spoiled.

The Trinity Sunday-school Guild will have a social at the rectory on Thursday evening, February 28th. All are cordially invited to attend.

JOTTINGS.

Crazy quilt patches in satin, plush and silk at Miss Gibbs'.

The Riverside Hotel is the place to go for a scientifically cooked and artistically served meal.

J. N. Wallace's rapidly increasing grocery trade shows that people like both his goods and prices.

For your firewood, of any length desired, patronize J. F. Aitken, who also sells hard coal for $12.50 per ton.

George Becker's Granite Saloon is the place to go to find the daily papers, a good fire and the best beer you ever imbibed.

Mahogany, oak, pine and elab wood cut any length required. Leave orders at N. C. & O. R. B. depot, Folsom & Wells or M. Nathan's clothing store.

The finest pocket cutlery, eye glasses, goggles, ink-blotters, ink-wells of all kinds, and albums, both autograph and photograph, at C. A. Thurston's news depot.

For your paints, oils, varnish and brushes, go to C. J. Brooks' variety store. He also carries a full line of writing tablets, for both pen and pencil.

The threatened storm of last Sunday evening proved a failure, but there is no failure about J. J. Becker's hot lunches and his Boca and Sacramento beer.

Tourists.

Whether on pleasure bent or business, should take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectually on the kidneys, liver and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches and other forms of sickness. For sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists.

Never Give Up.

If you suffer with asthma, bronchitis, or any other disease of the throat or lungs, nothing can surprise you more than the rapid improvement that will follow the use of Santa Abla. If you are troubled with catarrh, and have tried other medicines, you will be unable to express your amazement at the marvelous and instantaneous curative powers of California Cat-Cure. These remedies are not secret compounds, but natural productions of California. Sold at $1.00 a package or 5 for $2.50, and guaranteed by Osburn & Shoemaker.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at Hodgkinson's drug store as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, croup and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free: large size, $1. Every bottle warranted.

The Truckee Lumber Company is able to run its furniture and box factory but 5 1/2 hours per day now. They hold the water from the lake in one of their dams above Truckee until they save up enough water to run that length of time.

W. O. H. Martin is the friend of the farmer and mechanic. He deals in everything, from a pound of dried apples to the heavier bar iron, and can give you more goods for your money than any one else who carries the stock he does in town. Don't forget it.

State Statistics.

The annual report of the Surveyor-General for 1888 contains the following interesting information:

The total water area of the State is 1,081,000 acres, and of land, 70,656,000 acres. The mineral land includes 15,000,000 acres.

The population of the State is estimated at 65,110. [This is far ahead of that of other authorities, who place it at 45,000.]

The total bullion production of the State from 1860 to 1888 is placed at $527,073,251.

There are 191,270 head of cattle and 418,543 of sheep in the State valued at $4,000,000.

The wool product of 1888 is valued at $303,550.

San Francisco Meat Market. Following are the rates for whole carcasses from slaughterers to dealers in San Francisco:

Beef—First quality, 6@6 1/2c; second quality, 5 1/2@6c; third quality, 5c per pound.

Veal—Quotable at 7c for large and 6@6 1/2c per pound for small.

Mutton—Quotable at 6 1/2@7c per pound.

Lamb—Spring, 15c per pound.

Pork—Live hogs, on foot, grain fed, 6 1/2@7c; soft, 6@6 1/2c; dressed hogs, 9 1/2@10c per pound.

Good Travel Prospects. John Benson, David Kidd and Charles Lonsome have a very fine gravel prospect in Six-mile Canyon says the Lyon County Times. They have a shaft down about 90 feet, and the gold discovered is coarse and heavy. The parties have done about a month's work on the claim so far this year and are now arranging to put up a building to live in and for general purposes. Two carloads of lumber are expected to arrive from Carson this week for this purpose.

Fruit Country. The Biggs (Cal.) Argus says: The amount of trees planted about Chico, in Thermalito, Palermo, Rio Bonita, surrounding Biggs and Gridley, when summed up in acreage seems fabulous, and as yet only a beginning has been made. In ten years from now, at the present rate of progress, this whole country will have grown to be almost one solid orchard.

Down With the Smallpox. It is reported that E. B. Monroé, the surveyor, is down with the smallpox at Carson. He was to have been here Saturday, but sent word that he was feeling badly and feared he was coming down with the disease, but would be down Sunday night if his fears proved groundless. The fact of his not coming has given rise to the rumor that he is sick with it.

Advised to Advertise. "Doctor," said a citizen as he overtook him on the street, "what do you do in case of a gone stomach?"

"Well," replied the doctor thoughtfully, "I've never seen such a case myself, but I would recommend you to advertise for it, and then sit down in a large easy chair and wait until somebody brings it back."

Dairy Schools. There is a novel bill before the New York Legislature providing for the establishment of four dairy schools for the purpose of giving free instruction to young men and women in the management of the dairy. The bill appropriates $30,000.

Aged Couple. Joseph Hall and wife, who have been residents of Reno a number of years, were both born in 1812, married in Ohio in 1832 and for their years are quite hale and hearty. Mr. Hall very recently retired from the grocery business.

A Valuable Well. J. B. Gimmell, a stockman, at his place six miles this side of Battle Mountain, has an artesian well 100 feet deep which flows 75 gallons per minute.

Feet and Hands Frozen. C. Stillman, who is engaged with others in prospecting in Mt. Grant district, had his feet and hands badly frozen last week.

Lincoln on Champagne.

General Horace Porter, in his eulogy on Abraham Lincoln, said that the great war President wasn't much as a champagne drinker. The General recalled a visit of Mr. Lincoln to City Point. On his arrival the General said that Mr. Lincoln was suffering from the gastronomic disturbances incident to most folks who have sailed on rough water. "A young staff officer, previous he was," said the General, "grabbed a bottle of champagne and thrust it toward Mr. Lincoln, saying that that was the thing he needed. 'No, young man,' Mr. Lincoln said, 'I have seen too many fellows seasick ashore from drinking that article.'"

Important to Breeders.
 E. W. Crutcher has a very fine thoroughbred Clydesdale stallion for sale. He was imported from England by Jesse Harris, and is registered in the English Stud Book (No. 3,498, vol. 7). This beautiful animal was foaled May 26, 1882, and weighs about 1,700 pounds when in condition. He works single and double, and is perfectly reliable and kind. Here is an opportunity seldom offered for some enterprising breeder to get a fine horse cheap. Horse men wishing to purchase a fine animal can do so by calling at the Theater Stables and taking a look at Mr. Crutcher's.

Wood for Sale.
 All kinds of wood will be furnished by leaving orders at the office of the Nevada & California Railroad, Folsom & Wells or M. Nathan's clothing store. Terms: Good wood and good measure for cash.

Missing Numbers.
 Anyone who can furnish a copy of the EVENING GAZETTE of February 1st 2d, 7th and 11th will confer a favor by communicating with this office.

The Best Laid Plans of Mice and Men.
 Gang aft agley. Not so Hostett's Stomach Bitters. It goes right to the spot it is designed to beneficially affect, and there is no tardiness in its action. But while it relieves constipation in common with dyspepsia and liver complaint, it cures the chronic and abdominal disturbances produced by drastic purgatives never precede its operation. Its thoroughness is attested by the violence, the chief characteristic of most laxatives, and one that is highly prejudicial to both bowels and stomach. It is only by invigorating the intestinal canal, and thus fitting it to perform its office as a natural sieve for the effete matter of the system, that its regularity can be perpetuated. To weaken by dressing is to insure its relapse into disorder. This the Bitters never does. Chills and fever, nervousness, kidney complaints yield to the Bitters, and appetite and sleep are improved by it.

Epoch.
 The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health to the use of the Great Alternative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of the Kidneys or Liver or Stomach, of long or short standing you will surely find relief by the use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50c and $1 per bottle at Hodgkinson's drug store.

Persons troubled with rheumatism should try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One application will ease the pain, and its continued use has cured many cases of chronic and inflammatory rheumatism that had resisted other remedies and even the treatment of the best physicians. Price, 50 cents per bottle. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

Oregon is one of the most productive States in the Union. Its vast mineral regions contain gold, silver, copper, iron and coal. Its immense tracts of grazing lands support thousands of cattle and sheep, and its extensive agricultural regions produce all the cereals in abundance, the yield per acre being in some instances, the largest in the world. Among the useful and valuable products of the Webfoot State may be mentioned Oregon Kidney Tea, which has proved a boon to thousands afflicted with pain in the back and kidney difficulties. It is purely of vegetable composition and never fails. Sold by William Fininger.

This is the season of the year when the raw, cold winds create and havoc with the hands and complexion. Soft, white hands and a clear "peachy" complexion can be assuredly preserved by the frequent application of Putnam's Specific. If rubbed into the skin well it leaves no greasy surface. The skin absorbs it. Sold by William Fininger.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its prompt and effectual cures of coughs and colds. The most severe cold may be loosened and relieved by a few doses of this valuable remedy. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

The immediate symptoms of Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, are a distressing sense of weight, oppression and fullness in the stomach, heartburn, loss of appetite, foul breath, belching, flatulency, nausea, pains in the shoulders and breast. Dr. Hensley's Dandelion Tonic promotes healthy digestion and removes all unhealthy symptoms. Sold by William Fininger.

It should be generally known that Dr. Hensley's Dandelion Tonic insures a hearty appetite and increased digestion, dispels nervous depression and low spirits, overcomes lack of energy and wakefulness, and will infuse new life and strength into the weakest invalid. Sold by William Fininger.

Coughs and Colds. Those who are suffering from Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, should try Hensley's BRONCHIAL TONIC. Sold only in boxes.

AYER'S PILLS

CURE HEADACHE.

Headaches are usually induced by costiveness, indigestion, foul stomach, or other derangements of the digestive system, and may be easily cured by the use of Ayer's Pills. Mrs. Mary A. Scott, Portland, Me., writes: "I had suffered dreadfully from Sick Headache, and thought myself incurable. Disorder of the stomach caused it. Ayer's Pills cured me entirely."

CURE BILIOUSNESS.

John C. Pattison, Lowell, Me., writes: "I was attacked with Bilious Fever, which was followed by Jaundice. I was so dangerously ill, that my friends despaired of my recovery. I commenced taking Ayer's Cathartic Pills, and soon regained my customary strength and vigor. I feel certain that I owe my recovery to your valuable Pills."

CURE INDIGESTION.

Ayer's Pills act directly on the digestive and assimilative organs, influencing healthful action, imparting strength, and eradicating disease. G. W. Mooney, Walla Walla, W. T., writes: "I have suffered from Dyspepsia and Liver troubles for years past. I found no permanent relief, until I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, which have effected a complete cure."

Sold by all Druggists.

HUNTING THE COON.

Exhausting Sport Which Flourished in Late Days Preceding the War.

Among the animals which may be said to have become extinct is the coon dog of our fathers, says the Bangor Industrial Journal. He was of no particular strain of blood, but he united the keen scent of the deer-hound with the intelligence of the shepherd dog, and the tenacity of the bull dog with the stealth of the panther. With less accomplishments than these he might have been good on a fox or deer trail; the lowing herd would have probably been safe in his keeping; he might have been able to hold his own in a fight, or have stood a chance of succeeding as a sheep stealer, but he couldn't have been a coon dog.

For your coon is a cute and tricky customer, and crammed with patience. Moreover, he leaves behind him the cold, most scentless trail of any animal that runs. He leads you through the tangled swamps and deep, stony hollows. He crosses and recrosses swift running streams. He frisks along the top of rough stone walls as silent and swift as a shadow. He stops within a dozen feet of some convenient wall, clears the intervening space, and bounds, strikes a tree and glides up the longest limb to its extremity, and leaps a deep body beyond it to the ground again, breaking his trail abruptly on one side and beginning it as confusingly on the other. He invents tactics for emergencies, and brings to every consideration of his welfare and that of his family a large and level head. He plays his cards well and the dog that would beat him must needs hold both bowers and ace, with strong cards to back them. These the coon dogs of our fathers always had.

There were, twenty-five years ago, the still-hunting coon dog and the coon dog who let you know at every step he was getting there. There was mixed up with the methods of the still-hunter an element of greater certainty that you would get your coon than there was with the more melodious system of the dog that mouthed his presence in the shadowy chase; but the style of the latter put more tingle into your blood and buoyed you up with sweeter expectancy. There was something weird and uncanny in all the turnings and windings of the former through the gloomy woods at night.

It was different with the dog that gave tongue as he hunted. He made music in the night—not the silvery treble of the fox-hound, floating down from the hills on the frosty air and drawn out in sweet cadence by every willing echo, nor yet the mellow bass of the deer hound, swelling over the ridges, clear and far-reaching as a bugle note, but pleasant though staccato song of his own, half bark, half bay, a cheerful mingling of melody with business.

Once in the rare old days of coon hunting a new preacher was settled in the backwoods district of Pike County, Ill. He was not wise in the way of the woods. Early in his first autumn on his charge he began the usual protracted meeting season. By and by he noticed that on moonlight and starlit nights his congregation was made up of women only. Finally he asked the reason of this. A sister arose and said: "It's 'cause the coon's been 'in the dark' to the moon, Dominie. Soon as the moon darks the men'll jine ye."

Sure enough, when the "moon darked" the brethren were all in their places in the meeting-house, joining heartily in the proceedings. The pastor remonstrated with them publicly.

"While you have been killing after said he, 'there may have been those in this district who do not hunt coons, and whom you might have led here and saved their souls.'"

Deacon Brown rose up in the meeting and said: "Dominie, if there any one in this district 'ex don't hunt coons his soul hain't wuth savin'."

Coon hunting as a pastime went out of fashion with the war, and the old race of trained coon dogs gradually became extinct. Why the coon has come to be despised by the sportsmen in these days is one of those things about which the remark has once or twice been made that no fellow can find out. He is as cunning as the fox and more difficult to trail. He is, moreover, the laziest of animals, and eats only the most wholesome food. He should not be despised, surely, because he can be hunted only at night, for in threading the woods in the darkness, following dogs that you can not see and whose baying alone breaks the stillness, there is a most singular enchantment.

Even when coons are most abundant, nine out of ten of the present generation never see one, and few people know any thing about them or their habits. Although the coon prefers the vicinity of civilization as his habitat, he plans to keep aloof from the eyes of men, and his habits render this an easy task. By day he lies close in the low-way retreats, in the depths of hollow trees or isolated crevices and holes in the rocks. He wanders forth only at night, and although his foraging expeditions may bring him to the very doors of the farmers, and even within the boundary lines of villages, he never betrays his presence. If more than one coon is brought to bay in a tree they will invariably be females or a mother coon with her offspring. The female brings forth her litter only once in two years, and from the coming of the litter to the arrival of another she and her young are never separated. She keeps her little family together until they are two years old, and in protecting them will fight the attacking dog or hunter until she dies.

While the female coon is social and domestic, the male is the reverse. He is solitary, ranges entirely alone and gives no care or attention to family matters. He looks males meet in the woods or fields they fight furiously and not infrequently to the death. The male makes his range for forage much wider than the female does, and having no one to look after but himself more frequently escapes the hunter. In spring and summer the margin of brook and pond and the soft mud in swamps and bays are thickly indented with the graceful footprints of the coon, for in these months he spends his nights in catching frogs, fish, lizards, grubs and muskies, which are then his chief subsistence. Later on he ranges among the huckleberry and blackberry patches and feasts on the fruit.

When the milk comes in the corn is the coon's gala time, for he loves the tender succulent grains, as a farmer knows to his sorrow, and great are the risks he will take to forage in the fields. It is not until the berries are gone and the corn grown tough in the ear that the coon begins to look about for his winter stores. Then he lays up plentifully from the hick-nut, chestnut and acorn crops, and on these crops depends the hunting of the coon when he is at his best. During the autumn season he is fat, solid and wide awake, providing liberally for his family. One peculiarity of the coon, which, like most of his peculiarities, has escaped the attention of the naturalists who write books, is that he never touches food until he has quaffed at some spring or brook, even if he is compelled to go far to find it. Old coon-hunters say that the coon dips every mouthful of his food into water before eating it, but, like all old hunters, old coon hunters say a great many things that it would bother them to prove.

High Enough Already.

"George, dear, what a beautiful diamond butterfly! It looks ready to fly." "I don't see why it wants to fly," growled George. "Heaven knows it's high enough now. The rolled plate counter is at the other end of the store. Come on."

A tramp was captured at Stockton yesterday while placing obstructions on the railroad.

The following from the pen of Mr. L. Bardell, editor of the Marion (Iowa) Pilot, will, we believe, be of interest to many of our readers. He says: "It is with pleasure that I certify to the real merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have used it in my family for years and have always found it most excellent, and especially for colds, croup and sore throat. It is safe and effective. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker."

The Marshall Monument will not be unveiled until May.

"I have used St. Patrick's Pills," says Mr. J. Reynolds of Mayfield, Ky., and pronounce them superior to any I have ever before used. I do not hesitate to recommend them, knowing them to be reliable. They are thorough, yet gentle in their action, and leave the system in splendid condition. As a cathartic, or for disorders of the liver, St. Patrick's Pills have no equal. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker."

Tacoma, W. T., is to have an international sculling match next May.
